

By visiting the various categories on the main top menu of this page you can view the various wines, packages and other wine accessories available in our cellar. Should you decide to order any of our products, you need to follow the instructions of the system which along the way will ask you information in terms of your name and address, appropriate delivery method and eventually you will be asked to give your credit card details so that the order can be processed. Our online website is protected with secured protocol and all data given are crypto converted.

Once you register into our system you will be given a password that you can use every time you enter into the process of placing an order. Your credit card will not be debited automatically, it will be debited after we make sure that the selected products are in stock. At each and every stage, you will be notified by the system on the status of your order.

For overseas shipment of wines, please click on 'Air Shipment' when asked to select from the 'Shipping Rates List'

. After receiving your order, we will then contact you via e mail informing you of the corresponding freight charges

based on the

weight/destination

of your order. We will wait for your reply by email for your approval/decline and only then your credit card will be debited accordingly.

If you have any inquiries, please do not hesitate to send us an e-mail at:

info@cypruswinesonline.com or give us a call during office hours at tel: 00357-24815044.

Thanking you in advance and wishing you a pleasant navigation into our website.

Sergios Katodritis.